BRAZIL'S PRESIDENT DYING

Gen. Da Fonseca, Provisional Chief of the Republic, Said to Be Critically Ill.

Another Decree Issued Banishing Dom Pedro and All Members of the Royal Family and Taking Away the Ex-Emperor's Grants.

AFFAIRS IN BRAZIL.

General Da Fonseca Said to Be Dying—Dom Pedro's Money Grants Recalled.

LONDON, Dec. 21.—A private cable dispatch received here from Rio de Janeiro, states that Marshal Deodoro Da Fonseca, chief of the provisional government of Brazil, is dying. The question as to who will succeed him is engaging serious attention. It is believed that the change in the Ministry which would follow Marshal Da Fonseca's death would lead to serious complications.

An executive decree, promulgated to-day, fixes the date of the general election for Sept. 15, and the meeting of the constituent assembly for Nov. 15. By the same decree the Emperor Dom Pedro is banished from Brazil, together with the members of the royal family, the Viscount d'Ouro Preto and his brother Carlos Alfonsso. Senor Martino, governor of Rio Grande do Sul, charged with treason as the leader of the movement for the secession of that State, is condemned to transportation. The decree recalls and cancels the grant of 5,000,000 milreis to Dom Pedro, and suspends his allowance in the civil list.

A PORTENTOUS PEACE.

European Potentates Express Pacific Sentiments, but Do Not Disband Their Legions.

LONDON, Dec. 21.—Politicians generally are becoming skeptical of the continued professions of peace made from day to day by the rulers of the central European powers, and their prime ministers. They say there is too much talk of peace. Only the other day the Czar assured the world that he did not believe that "peace" would be broken, while this week the King of Italy was even more optimistic. But these potentates do not give an earnest of their convictions by disbanding a portion of their enormous armies. If there were less said about peace by the masters of every big battalion the people of Europe would be more hopeful. A few days before the outbreak of the Franco-German war Lord Granville was the Foreign Secretary, declared that there was not a cloud on the political sky. The fact is that any one of a thousand possible accidents might precipitate Europe into war any week. Czars, emperors and kings are at the mercy of circumstances, and the moment the circumstances tend towards peace. But while potentates are expressing such pacific sentiments their soldiers are armed to the teeth, and all the powers of the states are employed in daily preparing for immediate war.

EMIN BORN A JEW.

Facts Connected with His Early Life—His Conversion to Mohammedanism.

LONDON, Dec. 21.—It may not be generally known in the United States that Emin Pasha is, or was, a member of the Jewish faith. He was born at Oppeln, in Prussia, in the year 1840, and is the register of the Jewish congregation his birth is registered thus: "The child Isaac, son of Lebel Schnitzer, born on Sunday, being the 24th of the month Adar (29th March), of the year of the world 5600." In the civil register his father's name appears as Louis and his own as Edward. His father died when Emin was five years of age, and his mother, Pauline, Schmitzer, the daughter of a Jewish banker of Neuss, in Silesia, soon afterwards became a convert to Christianity. The future Emin after service in Turkey embraced the Mohammedan faith, and married a daughter of the Governor of Janina. It was his Jewish origin that led some of the anti-Semitic journals in Germany to oppose the rescue expedition on its first being proposed. Emin, who is by profession a medical man, has with him an apothecary from Tanzi whom Stanley calls Vita Hassan. This man also is a Jew. His real name is Haim, of which Vita is an equivalent.

MALLETOS CROWNED KING.

The Samoan Trouble Now Thought to Have Reached an End—Action of the Council.

APIA, Samoa, Dec. 7.—Per steamer Alameda to San Francisco, Dec. 21.—King Malletos has at last been formally recognized as ruler of Samoa by the consuls of the United States, Great Britain and Germany. About a month ago the consuls issued a proclamation, declaring that the Berlin conference had agreed to recognize Malletos as King, and advising the natives to acknowledge him as such. Tamassee replied to this proclamation by saying that his followers were willing that such a course should be taken. Malletos and Tamassee agreed to suggestions of the consuls, and the native chiefs of the islands also signed a document acknowledging Malletos as the king. As soon as the Samoans had come to the agreement, preparations were made for an official announcement of Malletos's authority. Accordingly, on Dec. 5, Malletos's flag was hoisted on the site of the old government house, and the United States man-of-war Adams fired a salute of twenty-one guns in his honor. The German man-of-war Sophie, which was also in the harbor, did not fire a salute. The consuls held a conference on the same evening and issued a proclamation declaring that the governments of the United States, Great Britain and Germany from this time will recognize Malletos as King of Samoa. The proclamation also advised the two native parties which have been hitherto opposed to each other, to effect ultimate reconciliation as soon as possible and contribute to a peaceable management of the new government. This proclamation was signed by Dr. Stuebel, German consul-general; H. De Brittain, British consul, and W. Blacklock, United States vice-consul. It was printed in the English and Samoan languages, a good number of copies of the island. The opinion is generally expressed that this action on the part of three consuls is the ultimate settlement of the Samoan difficulty.

The Czarevitch to Marry Either Princess Margaret of Prussia, or Maud of Wales.

LONDON, Dec. 21.—The Czarevitch of Russia will undoubtedly be betrothed to one of the two princesses, both of whom are his first cousins. The Danish royal family has so united the reigning houses of Europe that the Princess Margaret of Prussia, and the Princess Maud of Wales, stand in this relationship to the heir of all the Russias. There are good grounds for the report that the alliance will be with the English

COMMITTEES OF THE HOUSE

How Speaker Reed Has Apportioned the Work of Congress Among Its Members.

Gen. Browne, of Indiana, Made Chairman of the Committee on Revision of Laws, and Mr. Owen of Immigration and Naturalization.

HOUSE COMMITTEES.

How Indiana Congressman Fared in the Assignments Made by Speaker Reed.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 21.—In the assignment of committees, Indiana fared very well under all the circumstances. She got two chairmanships for two of her three Republican members. General Browne gets the chairmanship of the committee on revision of the laws. He asked Speaker Reed for an easy assignment, and notified the Speaker that he did not care for the laborious work of the ways and means committee, and therefore desired that he should not be placed on that body. The General also has a place on the expenditures in the Treasury Department, which has very little work to do. The General's chairmanship is a neat compliment to him, and is made in recognition of his services in the past, and because the Speaker desired to give him the privilege of appointing a clerk, and at the same time to relieve him of laborious duties.

Mr. Owen, at his own request, was made chairman of the committee on immigration and naturalization, which will have some exceedingly important work to do during the present Congress. Mr. Owen's other assignment is on the committee on expenditures in the Treasury Department. Mr. Cheadle was assigned to claims, but he arose to request a personal privilege, and stated he had asked to be serving on the same committee in the last Congress, and he desired to be relieved from services on that committee. His request was granted by unanimous consent.

Of the Democratic members, Mr. Shively gets on the committee on banking and currency and Indian Affairs. Mr. Shively is a farmer, and has been in commerce; Mr. Brookshire, on agriculture; Mr. Holman, on public lands, and on the census; Mr. McClellan, on railways and canals and expenditures in the Navy Department; Mr. Cooper, on mines and mining, and Pacific railroads; Mr. Martin, on invalid pensions; Mr. Barrett, on pensions and Indian deputation claims, and Mr. Browne, on war claims.

The Committees in Detail.

To the Western Associated Press.
